President's Message

Spring is here... A time of blooming, planting and births! I hope all your spring foals have arrived and are healthy. GAHA conceived our new show format last year, and we are in the final stages of our gestation. Our show's "due date" is coming up quick on us at June 7-10, 2007. We as a club need to "pull together" to get this set of shows to "bloom and give birth" on that date. We need all of GAHA to help with this show by either volunteering to help at the show, sponsor a class and/or by showing. This show is expected to be a very large show this year because it is a two day Region 12 qualifier followed by a two day Region 14 qualifier and right in the middle of those two is the Region 12 hunter/jumper show. What a phenomenal experience this will be for GAHA! All of us need to get out and show our support!

A note I need to pass on to all dressage riders planning to attend our show is get your entries in early. We have only so many ride times available.

I urge everyone to check out the new website at www.georgia-arabian.com. It really looks great! GAHA use this website. It is free for you to use. Send in sale ads, calendar of events, member news (got any new foal pictures) or just tell us about a special event in your life (birth of a child or grandchild). It is your website.

In closing, remember every journey in life begins with that first step. Don't be afraid to take it.

Sincerely,
Connie Green
President of Georgia Arabian Horse Association
